Ms Scott commences with Zip today in Sydney reporting to Zip's Global Chief Operating Officer and Co-Founder Peter Gray. She will be responsible for leading Zip's operations in Australia and New Zealand.

Peter Gray said: "I am delighted to welcome Cynthia as our newest Zipster. She is a seasoned executive with an amazing track record in retail, real estate, telecommunications, media and 20+ years in banking. Cynthia's leadership and experience will be invaluable in driving Zip in the ANZ region and guiding the business through our next exciting stage as we progress from a pure BNPL player to much, much more."

"Over the past 18 months Zip has transformed from a small Australian company in two markets, to a global BNPL business operating in 13 countries. Such rapid growth and broad reach requires us to continue to evolve and build our leadership capability, as Larry and my attention increasingly moves global. This means we needed an outstanding leader to run our Australian and NZ businesses - and that person is Cynthia."

Commenting on her appointment Ms Scott said:

"I am excited to be joining Zip at a time when BNPL is disrupting the global financial services sector. The opportunity to work with Larry, Peter and the incredible Zipsters, to deliver the next chapter of Zip's history with innovative products, was irresistible. I'm proud to be taking responsibility for the ANZ business of an Australian-born, global payments leader who fearlessly puts customers first and in control of tomorrow."
